Use got some dings do say.
Veil den, misder—vot you call?
Editor, Oh, yah! sum dimes
Every dings gid out mine bet
Ven I git making rhymes.

Den I scradzh my het and dink
Boat dat same verd I loss,
Ven he gome, I scradsh him down
So quiek as never vas,
I vould say some little dings,
Do my vriends unt neighbors,
So I dink der vay vas pest
Do say him mit der bapors,

Oos vy? If you vants to know Vat dime der drain gon out, Gid your baper, read him tru, You nose him all about. But some vollers not got vone,
Dey always never know,
But make me trouble all der dime
Vet dime der railroads go.

Dat been wat I make dalk vrom,
Unit vat I vants to zay,
Buy baper every veek,
Unit reads him every day.
How you know vats going on?
How know it you ent ted?
Who re make vor office run,
You not der baper reat?

How you goin' do fine him out Ven some one murried is? How you know if Sheneral Grant Make you der bost office? How you know ven you go sick Mit het ache in der bowel Vare you git some toctor stuff? Who dell? Sharlie Bowell!

How you know zome little dings How you know some pigger dings Yat happen vay in Rome? How you know it Sheneral Grant do sick so vorse he tie? Zonue body zny you zo, eh? May bo he zay you lie.

Der vey do know dese little dings Und pig ones shust so vell,
Shust zay me your baper zend,

HAVE fully demonstrated their adaptation to the soil and climate of the South. Yield 100 to 150 bushels to the acre. No ludging or rusting. Are heartily endorsed by prominent planters in every Southern State. Those wishing to participate in the profits of the sale of this seed next year should order at once, enough for a few acres. Every one will want it next year. J. L. Divine, Chattanoogo, Tenn., raised 75: bushels on 5 acres last year. The increased value of the straw will pay cost of seed twice over. A few planters have already bought, and there is a chance for a few more.

CAUTION.—Counterfeit seed is being extensively offered in the South, and we caution the public against imposition. See that our trademark is produced before you bny.
